Annual Cowtown Scramble
Creamery Field Vintage Baseball Park, Bovina Center, 11am, Saturday and 9am, Sunday. Delaware County is home to three vintage baseball teams that play under the Delaware County Vintage BaseBall Association (DCVBA). DCVBA offers opportunities to enjoy playing and watching 19th century-style baseball, connecting new generations to the tradition of baseball in Delaware County towns dating back to 1825. Vintage base ball (spelled more often as two words until 1896) is a loose term for amateur baseball played by the various rules, customs and equipment of the 1800s. Men and women play with wooden bats and in some cases no gloves, in period accurate attire to replicate the game as it was played during its formative years. Grab a blanket or chair and enjoy a game; all games are free. Times and games are subject to change and weather. www.delcovintagebaseball.org.
